

King Grants Pass to Preach the Gospel

The Dream

I had a dream the morning of the 5th of March 2013. In the dream I was in a heated conversation with a man who only can be described as the then ruling High King over all the earth sometime in the future. We seemed to know each other from the past yet as I later awoke from the dream, I did not remember his face or his person.

In the dream, the outcome of the argument was that I would be granted a 'pass' from him to preach any place in the world. A wooden 'pass' card was then made and engraved with the words, "Let this man pass to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ." The King then placed the wax seal of his royal personage on the bottom right of the wooden card to validate its authenticity. I then awoke from the dream.

Interpretation

What came to my mind as I prayed upon awakening was this King was a future King of the Holy Roman Empire who had gained back the sovereign right to rule over the earth and its nations. I am convinced it is related to the 10 kingdoms of the earth that is prophesied in the Holy Scriptures to have rule over the earth in the last days.

It is strange because I personally know and have served the current Empress of the Holy Roman Empire from the Hapsburg-Lorraine line coronated by Rome in the 1960's who is the legitimate ruler of the Holy Roman Empire. However the ruler in this dream was not her or her husband, Karl Von Habsburg. It is a future ruler yet to come.

Temporary Concession

We can be assured that whatever liberty is granted by the Holy Roman Empire is temporary at best. The Bible tells us that three of the Kings of the 10-kingdom world Empire are usurped or uprooted by one king who arises out of nowhere and boasts to be God and demands to be worshipped by all peoples according the prophecies in Revelation and Daniel. This is in history the Hapsburg-Lorraine royal line who now has power over the three early kings wiped out from the Roman Empire beginning in the 6th century AD.

This may become the final Antichrist with whom Messiah Y'Shua will make war when he returns to earth. I am confident this final Antichrist will not grant such liberties to preach the Gospel of Y'Shua (Jesus) the Messiah to anyone. Yet, strangely, this is a possibility as he seeks to unite the world under one religion.
