

Location of Abyss in Euphrates Discovered: Dream

by David Michael, info@glentivar.org

In the early morning of the 13th of April 2016, I found myself hovering over the waters of the Persian Gulf. I appeared to be just off the coast of Qatar looking/flying to the north east. As I watched and then moved over the Gulf in a north-easterly direction, I then saw beneath the water to the basin rock below. I then saw through the sand and sediment and saw a crater sunken about 20' feet into the hard basin floor about 60' feet across. The cover for this portal seemed to be very rough... a solid volcanic monolithic rock in nature. The dream then ended.

The day prior, I had done an intense study on available documents that would suggest the location of the Abyss where the fallen angels called Watchers in the Book of Enoch were chained until the end times. This was a study spawned from a prior dream where I was told personally by YHWH that the He-Goat will be the next major event. I was not able to make any conclusions from available resources that would connect with the biblical location of the site of the Abyss I saw in the dream.

The term Abyss in the Sumerian tongue was Abzu which is the most ancient name for this prison under the Euphrates. The Abzu term implies water and the book of Revelation says that its entrance is in the Euphrates. However, the path of the Euphrates has changed over time.

As I fell asleep, I intensely prayed for a revelation on the location of the entrance to the Abyss from which 4 angels (Watchers) would emerge with their armies as identified in the 9th chapter of Revelation who would then be loosed to ravage the earth in the last days. Here is the text for this prophecy by John.

King James Bible: Revelation, Chapter 9, The Fifth Trumpet

1. And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. 2. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. 3. And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. 5. And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. 6. And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7. And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. 8. And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. 9. And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. 10. And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. 11. And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12. One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

The Sixth Trumpet

13. And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14. Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. 15. And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16. And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. 17. And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. 18. By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. 19. For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

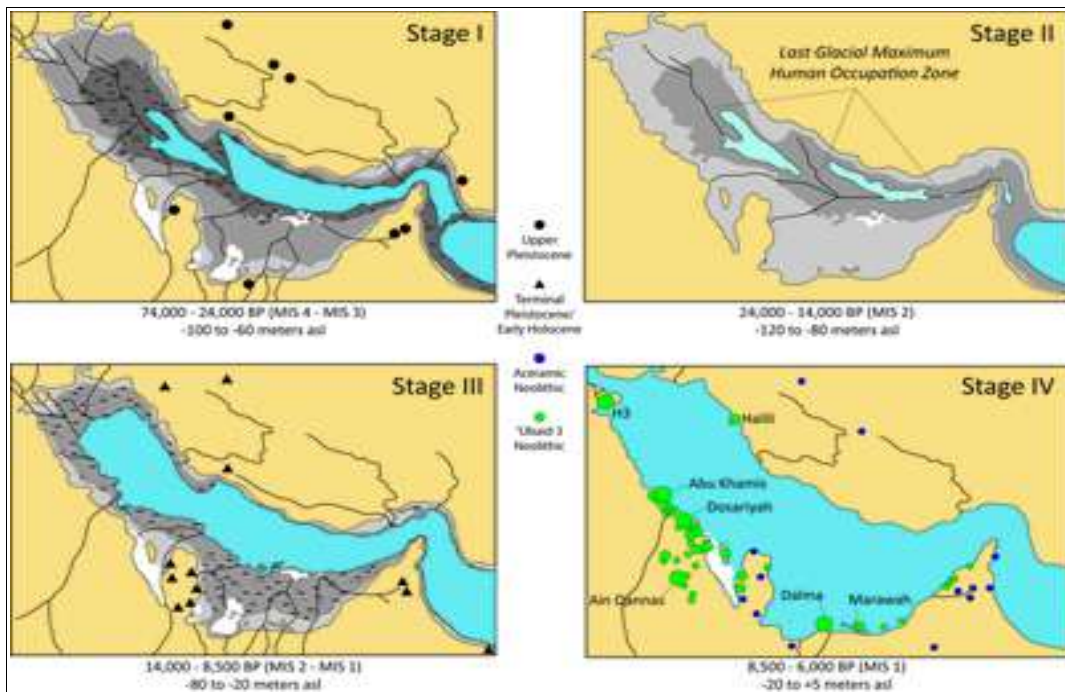

20. And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: 21. Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

After the dream, I did more research. The route of the Tigris north of the Persian Gulf is pretty much as it is today. The Euphrates above the Gulf had a different route back in the time of Enoch farther to the West from its present location. Back in history, the Persian Gulf did not exist. No inland sea existed until it got to the present day Gulf of Oman. The Persian Gulf was then at the time of Enoch a very fertile plain with many rivers and lakes. This fertile plain was also the most likely location for the Garden of Eden located in the northern part of the Persian Gulf also now under water.

Euphrates under the Persian Gulf

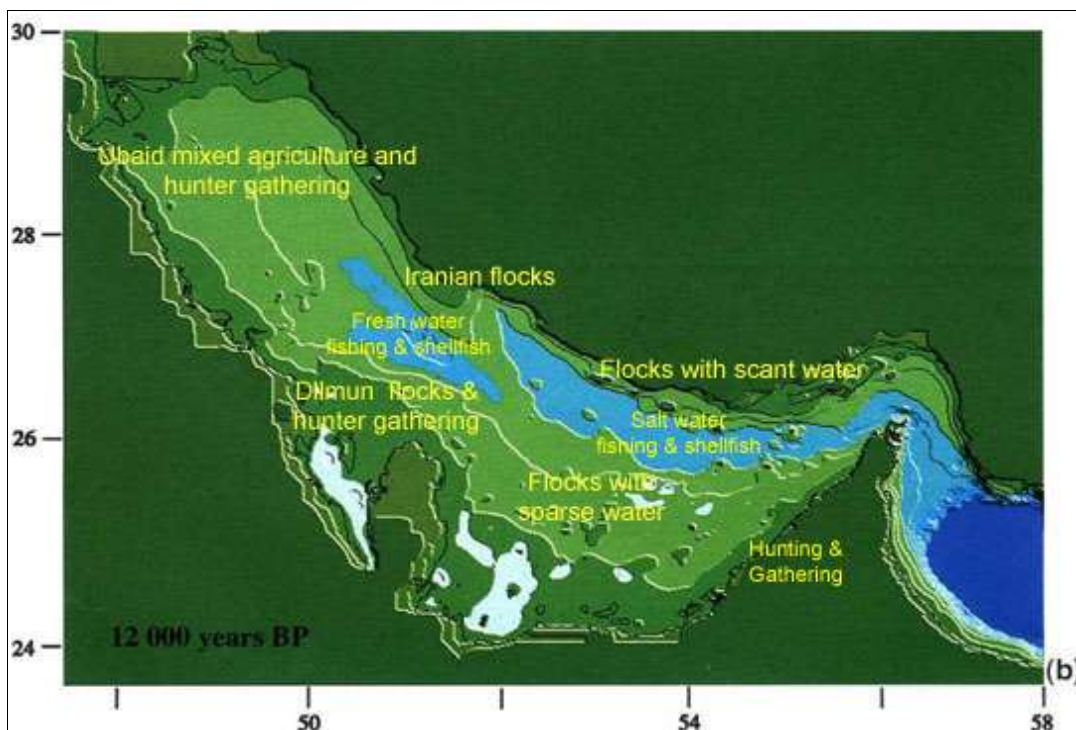

The four rivers flowing into the Garden of Eden mentioned in Genesis are identified as the Euphrates, Tigris, Pison and Gihon and join together in the northern part of the plain (Gulf - now under water) and became the mother Euphrates where all four rivers flowed into the plain and through the Garden of Eden as a single river emptying into the Gulf of Oman. This ancient mother Euphrates River is now at the bottom of the Persian Gulf and appears to also be the location of the Abyss portal to the South of the Garden of Eden.

The Persian Gulf 'plain' has only recently been covered with water - perhaps not until the Great Flood occurred. The following map suggests the change of the Gulf over time. The dates ascribed to this are theoretic (best guess) only. I suggest the change was a result of the Great Flood which raised the seal levels.

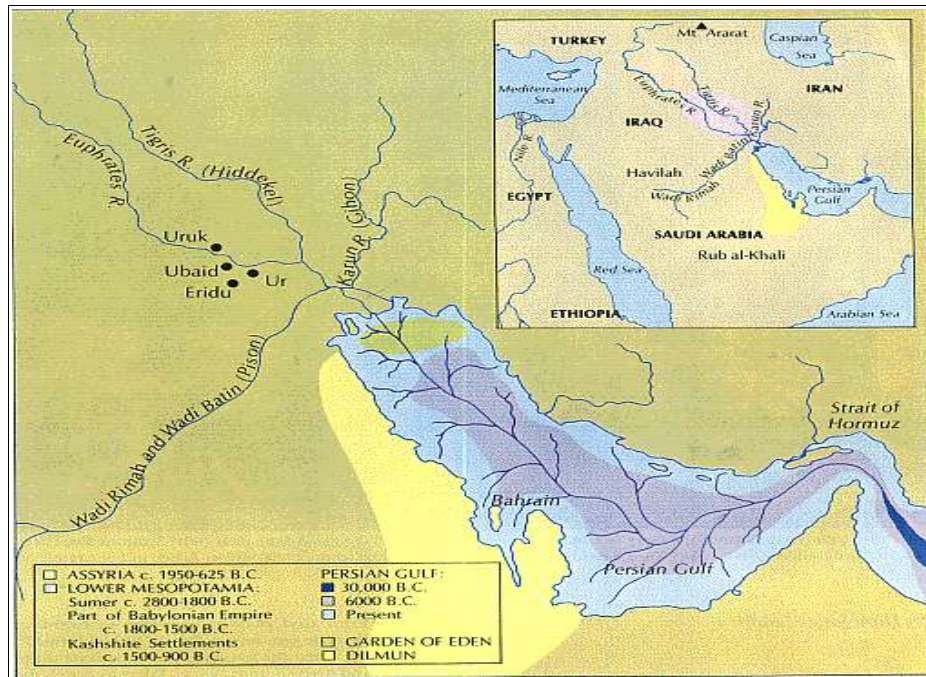

Persian Gulf as First Civilization

Archaeologists are now suggesting this Gulf Plain area hosted the very first civilization that predated the Sumerian culture from which the Sumerian culture was spawned dating back thousands of years to circa 6000-10,000 BC and possibly farther back during the ice age in providing a warmer climate to survive. The cities in this Persian Gulf plain appear to be the first cradle of civilization and are thought to predate N. Africa and other proposed human origin sites around the world. Because they find humanoids dating to 300,000 years and farther back does not mean they are Adamic man. They are humanoid animals.

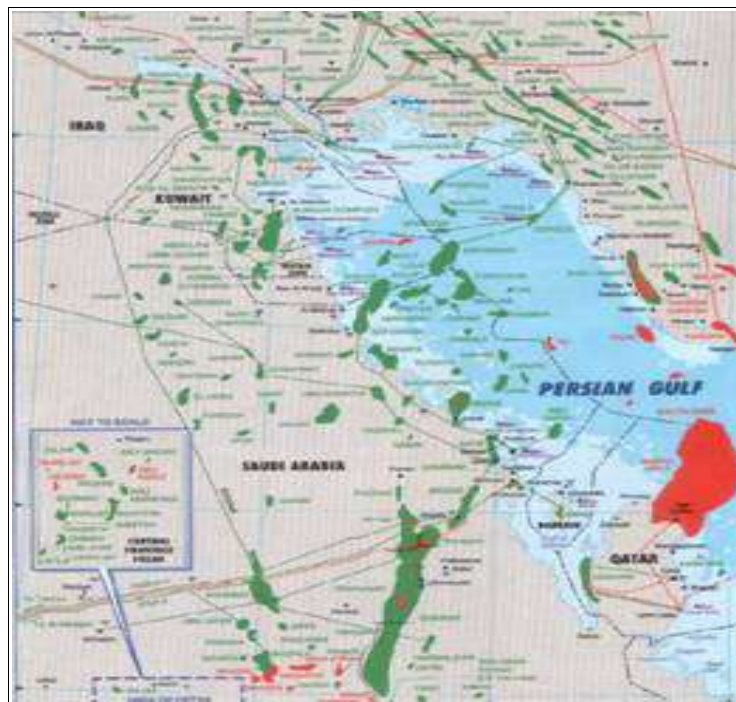

Morphology of the Abyss

The morphology of the area just north-east of Qatar in the Gulf that I saw in the dream and discovered after the dream hosts the largest natural gas reserve in all of the Middle East.

Natural gas is compressed in pockets or caverns deep within the earth's crust sometimes 2 miles deep. These gas filled caverns are contained by volcanic geology. It is possible other caverns exist where the fallen angels could have been chained.

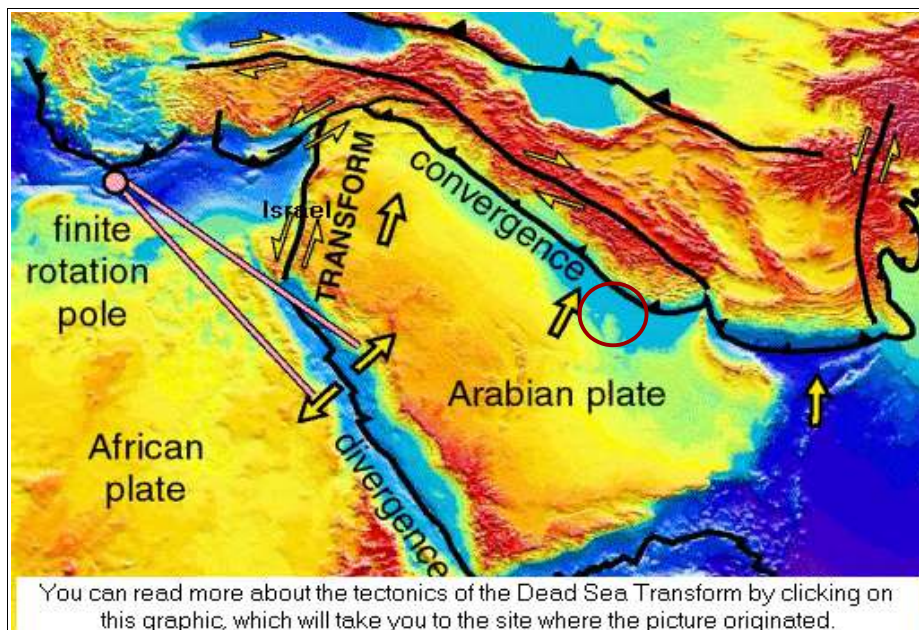

Surrounding these gas pockets is a volcanic spawned massive thick 'wall' of melted salt cause by volcanic action in the area. This extremely thick salt wall completely surrounds the center of the noted gas reserves. It is also the location of erratic unexplained wave motion on the Gulf surface.

Heat Fused Salt Barrier in Red – Gray center is the proposed location of Abyss

This site is strategically located in the middle of two major faults where the tectonic plates shift as much a 20 mm each year. Bahrain is a volcanic island adding to this geologic instability. All of this makes the area very unstable and subject to change very quickly given the right combination of geologic events.

Importance of this Revelation

The importance of knowing the location of the Euphrates Abyss provides the location where the four angelic armies of destruction will emerge and begin. It is strategically revealing that the NWO using the US military is targeting all of the Middle Eastern countries for control through war that "surround the Gulf." The coastal countries of Iran, Iraq, Kuwait are being subdued continually by the NWO Western alliance with Saudi Arabia located to the west of the Gulf as a strained ally. The NWO knows the importance of this area where sometime in the future, the armies of the four angels will be sent into the world to destroy. By then, only the 144,000 prophets will be on earth with the Church with Y'Shua returning in battle against the Antichrist regime.

Is the NWO Antichrist regime seeking to secure the area to position themselves to better fight these other world inter-dimensional invaders? Are they seeking to assure that the gates of this fallen angelic prison is kept closed? Or are they seeking to open this gate to then form an alliance with these angels of great power? Or perhaps let them reduce the world's population and then blame YHWH (who they will call Enlil) for the death of millions?

Keep in mind it is an angel sent from heaven that opens the gates to the Abyss. This does not mean they are in the employ of YHWH. Yet... YHWH lets this happen. The Armies of destruction that emerge from the Abyss under the command of four angelic generals are commanded to not to touch the 144,000 prophets sealed with the seal of the Lamb. They comply as a condition of their release by YHWH.

Prophets Sent

Qatar and Bahrain are the two countries in the area that are currently tolerant toward Christians. It is here that prophets may be initially sent to confront the forces of the NWO to foretell of this developing threat to their NWO domination agenda and to the people who are considered expendable by the NWO who is seeking to reduce the world's population by 70%.

This revelation is critical for our understanding why the West is at war in the Middle East. Most conspiracy researchers trace the war effort to controlling the oil in the area to assure economic stability. I believed this for years. With recent dreams, I have come to understand this is not the primary reason.

The NWO powers are not dependent on oil for energy but have access to fully functional gravitational and scalar energy producing systems. This compels us to seek a much deeper and very hidden reason. The 4 angels are a great power for the NWO regime. The need then is to control the area so as to bunker in to be able to mediate (either form an alliance or fight) the invading 'angelic led' armies who emerge from under the Persian Gulf as the Abyss of the ancient River Euphrates is opened.

As all this occurs, may the prophets be there to reveal the heart of YHWH as the call to repentance to follow the way of Y'Shua in obedience that some might be saved.
