

Dragon Hunter: Dream

Dragons like Rats

In the early morning of the 27th of October, I found myself in a very large old Victorian house. It was a mess as if it had been abandoned for decades. It seem to me in the dream that very large community of pack rats had destroyed everything in the house. Others were with me in this dream.

We were then given this house and I said to the others, we need to go and start cleaning the house. I opened one overhead cupboard in the large kitchen and it was full of droppings mixed in with what looked like gallons of sesame seeds. I assumed this was a store of food for the pack rats.

Red Piercing Eyes

I then heard something behind me and thought it was a rat running for cover. I turned and saw a two foot tall dragon with wings folded back. Its color was dark tan with a long neck and tail. It turned to me and looked angrily with its red piercing eyes and hissed a very chilling scream to let me know I was trespassing on its domain. It then scurried out an open door into another room.

Pests need to be Killed

I considered this creature like a rat and so it needed to be killed. I could not let it keep destroying the house along with many others of its kind who together would bring the house into total destruction.

I looked for something like a shovel or hoe to use as a weapon to hammer the little pest into the floor to kill it. My friends then asked me what I was doing and upon hearing of my quest, objected strongly. They all shouted to me to not squish the little creature since they wanted to preserve it like butterflies are preserved with a pin though its body suspended above a board for all to see. They wanted to show this little creature to the world and become famous and make the house famous so people would come so they would be rich and influential.

The dream then ended.

Interpretation

I didn't think about this dream for some hours later. It then dawned on me what it meant. The would wants to celebrate the power of God in crushing the works of the devil and then claim fame from the battles they have won in the name of Y'Shua. They want to lift Satan up for all to see as an awe inspiring artifact. I was saddened by this understanding. Here we have pests destroying the house (church) of Y'Shua and the caretakers of the house (leaders of the church) just want to make money from the events of the house.

Be assured, if you see a man or woman in the pulpit showing how he or she has overcome the devil and that testimony being the primary message, he or she is a fame monger. They want to become famous. If they tell their story and then ask you for an offering, they are merchandising the gospel for personal gain. They are motivated by the love of money which is the root of all evil. If they do such things, they are not true Christians but charlatans and should not be given access to any pulpit to speak to the people of YHWH. They are deceivers and liars and will not go to heaven. As the Scriptures tell us:

*9. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate [homosexuals], nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 10. Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 11. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
I Corinthians 6:9-11*

Cleaning the House of YHWH

The house of YHWH is a mess as was this house in the dream and the dragons of the Antichrist religion run freely in this house and have made a very severe mess of this house called the church. The right approach is to squash the evil so completely it cannot be any longer recognized and then clean out the mess it has caused. To display the evil dragon on a pin is to make this creature an object to be worshiped. This occurred with Israel with the serpent on the staff of Moses and it had to later be completely destroyed so the people would not worship the staff and the serpent on the staff. Evil must be destroyed so completely that there is no remnant of it left in the house of YHWH. Jesus said, "A little leaven leavens the whole lump [of bread]."
