

Wormhole or Healing Device: Dream

by David Michael, info@glentivar.org

In a dream in the early morning of the 21st of October 2015, I found myself walking along in a large desert. As I was walking I came across a strange acorn shaped metallic device sitting on the ground before me with a crank at one end. The color of the device was burnished bronze about 8" long and 6" wide in the round. The lower end of the device opposite the crank was bell shaped but upside down with the bell facing toward the top covering from the the crank extended.

I wondered what this device was used for. I thought.... "Well...I will just turn the crank and see what happens." When I started turning the crank, I heard musical tones – four of them in a chord that sounded very blissful and heavenly. The sound of the four tones was like 4 Tibetan bells being rung all at the same time by rubbing a finger around the edge of the bells in a circular motion. As I was enjoying the sound, I then looked up and noticed the terrain had changed. The mountains were still there but the land was much more lush and green. I observed small brooks of water flowing around me bringing life to the plants of the desert. It was no longer a desert but a garden with many kinds of plants growing. Even plants you would not find in a desert where bursting from the ground and growing. I asked myself, "Was I back in time when more rain had fallen upon the area or did this device create life in healing the land by bringing it back into balance. Was this why water was then able to again fall as rain and flow upon the land as it had many hundreds of years ago before it became desert?"

I then awoke.

After thinking about this dream, I felt it like many other dreams I have had was related to the Native Americans in their return to the god of their forefathers who is called YHWH or Yehovah by the Hebrews and by the Cherokee, Yahuveha. The four bells seemed to be related to the 4 winds with each bringing rain to the parched lands of the desert. The bells in my hand called to the four generals of the four winds under the command of Michael the Archangel to bring rain clouds full of rain so life may return back to the land.

In further reflection I realized this will only happen when the Native peoples return to the Creator of Creators and realize many spirits who claim to be the creator of creators are not speakers of truth but speak lies. There is only one true God but many spirits of great power who claim to be the one true God above all others. Be assured, Allah is not Yehovah. Zeus is not Yehovah. Ra or Osiris is not Yehovah. The god of Buddha or the Shintoists is not Yehovah. None of the Hindu gods are Yehovah. The Anunnaki gods of Sumer and Babylon are not Yehovah. The Great White Spirit may or may not be Yehovah. Sadly, the god whom most of the Jews and Christians worship today in their churches is not Yehovah either.

It is time to return to the god of our forefathers who is the true Creator of Creators. It is time to remember the Sabbath rest and the Holy feats of the cycles of the moon as described in the writings of Moses. It is time to honor the one true God and no longer pursue the gratification of wealth, power and pleasure. It is time to unshackle yourself from all that is not needed to live to reduce the many distractions of life to then purify your soul so yo may hear the gentle voice of Creator Yehovah. The clutter of our minds and souls must be emptied to innocently hear God. The repentance of doing evil along with the pursuit of gratification and comfort must be embraced to hear God. When will you do this?
