

Spirit of a Bishop: Dream

by Eleanor Kaiser, info@glentivar.org

On Sunday the 23rd of August, 2015, at around 3:00-3:30 am, I dreamed I was sitting in the Church located on Oak Street in Buena Vista, CO. At the podium was Anglican Bishop of the Anglican church doing the Anglican liturgy. He was saying nice words found in the liturgy but it was not what I heard. I heard words of how stupid, foolish and ignorant we were as a congregation. In the dream he had taken over the church high in the Rocky Mountains and we didn't even know what was happening until it seemed like it was all over.

I looked around to see if anyone else had heard these true words I was hearing even as the liturgy was ongoing. I realized everyone was just sitting back and listening to the liturgy as if nothing unusual was happening. I thought, "Doesn't anybody else hear this?"

I then realized in the dream that it was not the Anglican Bishop who was speaking but an evil spirit that was speaking through him. My heart was racing. I was panicked and fearful. I couldn't breathe in the dream and then I woke up.

I then laid there and replayed what I have seen and heard in this dream given to me for the congregation of the church concerned.

Vision: Winds at War

by Mark Kaiser

On Friday the 21st of August, 2015 at 6:15 in the morning, I was awakened by unusually violent winds whipping near and around my cabin. I immediately sensed that these winds were NOT normal winds but they were driven by spiritual powers in conflict. Only a few days earlier, the church that my father built had divided. The battle for the souls of the members of this congregation was severe and ruthless. Only a few remained with the Anglican bishop who locked us all out of the church building while the majority of the congregation were now meeting in homes.

Then the Lord spoke to me and said, "My angels are battling the forces of darkness. Do not fear."

The battle of the angels against evil lasted for about 2 minutes and then ceased as quickly as it began. The winds stopped completely. Then I felt in my spirit a total quiet with a cloud of peace that fell upon and covered the whole ranch. I then saw angels stationed all around the ranch as protectors of its inhabitants with the glory of Jesus' covering the whole place like a shell or dome of protection.

Praise the lord...the battle belongs to the Lord.

The four winds are the army of YHWH under the command of Michael the Archangel as confirmed in scripture. They fight the wars against evil for the people of YHWH. 12 legions are under the command of Michael which may represent 72,000 warrior angels now being assigned to protect the 'safe places' as a refuge set aside by God for the holy people of YHWH. These places have been selected in remote places - mostly in the mountains around the world. These warrior angels are often seen standing between 9'-12' in height, fully armored and carrying spiritual swords and shields fully prepared to battle the evil spiritual forces of the now dominant Antichrist regime controlling world political and economic affairs.

To keep this force of protection in our defense active at the Kaiser Ranch, the call to holiness is needed by all those who live at the ranch. This is of paramount importance. Any habitual sin continued by the members can open a door in this protection and allow the evil forces to break through these angelic defenses.
